

Surviving Tomorrow: A Charity Anthology to Empower Hope and Resilience

In the face of adversity, hope and resilience can be the driving forces that propel us forward. These qualities are essential for surviving and thriving in a post-apocalyptic world, and they are the themes that unite the stories in Surviving Tomorrow: A Charity Anthology.

Surviving Tomorrow: A Charity Anthology by Scotto Moore

★★★★☆ 4.3 out of 5

Language	: English
File size	: 1486 KB
Text-to-Speech	: Enabled
Screen Reader	: Supported
Enhanced typesetting	: Enabled
Word Wise	: Enabled
Print length	: 466 pages
Lending	: Enabled

This anthology features 25+ stories from a diverse group of authors, each of whom has explored the themes of hope and resilience in their own unique way. The stories range from gritty tales of survival to heartwarming stories of hope and redemption. But what unites them all is their message of empowerment and their belief that even in the darkest of times, there is always hope.

All proceeds from the sale of Surviving Tomorrow will be donated to charities supporting disaster relief and preparedness. These charities are working to help people around the world who have been affected by natural disasters, war, and other crises. By purchasing a copy of this anthology, you can help to support these important organizations and make a difference in the lives of those who need it most.

The Stories

The stories in Surviving Tomorrow are as diverse as the authors who wrote them. But they all share a common thread of hope and resilience. Here is a brief overview of some of the stories you will find in this anthology:

- "The Last Survivor" by Michaelbrent Collings tells the story of a lone survivor who must find a way to rebuild her life after a devastating pandemic.
- "The Light in the Darkness" by Meghan Curran is a heartwarming story of hope and redemption in a post-apocalyptic world.
- "The Girl Who Could Talk to Animals" by Tanya Thomson is a tale of survival and friendship in a world where animals are the only allies left.
- "The Boy Who Could Heal" by Christopher Golden is a gripping story of survival and self-sacrifice in a world ravaged by war.
- "The Woman Who Could See the Future" by Rachel Caine is a chilling tale of suspense and survival in a world on the brink of collapse.

The Authors

The authors who contributed to Surviving Tomorrow are all talented writers who are passionate about the themes of hope and resilience. They come from all walks of life, but they share a common goal of making a difference in the world. Here is a brief biography of each of the authors:

- Michaelbrent Collings is a Bram Stoker Award-winning author of horror and dark fantasy. His work has been praised for its originality and its ability to provoke thought and emotion.
- Meghan Curran is a Nebula Award-nominated author of science fiction and fantasy. Her work has been praised for its lyrical prose and its insightful exploration of human nature.
- Tanya Thomson is an award-winning author of fantasy and paranormal romance. Her work has been praised for its strong characters and its ability to create immersive worlds.
- Christopher Golden is a New York Times bestselling author of horror, fantasy, and thrillers. His work has been praised for its suspenseful plots and its vivid characters.
- Rachel Caine is a New York Times bestselling author of young adult fiction and paranormal romance. Her work has been praised for its fast-paced plots and its relatable characters.

How to Help

You can help to support the charities that Surviving Tomorrow benefits by purchasing a copy of the anthology. The anthology is available in both print and ebook formats. You can also donate directly to the charities listed on the Surviving Tomorrow website.

Every little bit helps. By supporting Surviving Tomorrow, you can help to make a difference in the lives of those who have been affected by disaster and help to build a more resilient future for all.

About the Charities

The following charities will benefit from the sale of Surviving Tomorrow:

- American Red Cross
- Doctors Without Borders
- International Rescue Committee
- Mercy Corps
- Oxfam

These charities are working to help people around the world who have been affected by natural disasters, war, and other crises. By supporting Surviving Tomorrow, you can help to support these important organizations and make a difference in the lives of those who need it most.

Surviving Tomorrow is a powerful anthology that explores the themes of hope and resilience in a post-apocalyptic world. The stories in this anthology are sure to inspire and move you, and they will remind you that even in the darkest of times, there is always hope.

Please consider purchasing a copy of Surviving Tomorrow today and help to support the charities that are working to make a difference in the world.

Surviving Tomorrow: A Charity Anthology by Scotto Moore

★★★★☆ 4.3 out of 5

Language : English

File size : 1486 KB

Text-to-Speech : Enabled

Screen Reader : Supported
Enhanced typesetting : Enabled
Word Wise : Enabled
Print length : 466 pages
Lending : Enabled

We Were 12 At 12:12 On 12/12/12: Adventure Travel Tales

On December 12, 2012, at exactly 12:12 pm, a group of 12 individuals embarked on a unique travel journey. They had planned this trip for months, and they were...

Unveiling Adventure and Ecotourism in Edward James' Surrealist Garden: Las Pozas Xilitla

Nestled amidst the lush greenery of the Huasteca Potosina region in Mexico, Las Pozas Xilitla is an otherworldly paradise that harmoniously blends art,...