- DK Eyewitness Travel Guide: Rome: This guide is known for its stunning photography and detailed maps. It is a great option for first-time visitors to Rome.

- Rick Steves Rome: This guide is written by the popular travel writer Rick Steves. It is known for its practical advice and helpful tips.
- Lonely Planet Rome: This guide is a great option for budget travelers. It provides a wealth of information on how to save money while traveling in Rome.

Once you have chosen a guidebook, you can start planning your itinerary. Rome is a large city, so it is important to prioritize the sights that you want to see. If you are interested in architecture, then you should definitely visit the following sites:

- The Colosseum
- The Roman Forum
- The Pantheon
- The Trevi Fountain
- The Spanish Steps
- The Vatican City

These are just a few of the many architectural wonders that Rome has to offer. With so much to see, you are sure to have an unforgettable trip.

Getting Around Rome

Rome is a very walkable city, but you may also want to take advantage of the public transportation system. The city has a metro system, as well as a number of bus lines. You can also purchase a Roma Pass, which gives you unlimited access to public transportation for a period of time.

If you are staying in the city center, you can easily walk to most of the major sights. However, if you are staying in a more remote area, you may want to take the metro or bus. The metro is a fast and efficient way to get around, and it is also relatively inexpensive.

Where to Stay in Rome

There are a variety of hotels and guesthouses to choose from in Rome. If you are on a budget, you can find a decent hotel room for around €50 per night. If you are looking for something more luxurious, you can expect to pay around €200 per night or more.

When choosing a hotel, it is important to consider the location. If you are planning on doing a lot of walking, you may want to stay in a hotel that is close to the city center. However, if you are planning on taking the metro or bus, you can stay in a hotel that is further away from the center.

What to Eat in Rome

Rome is a foodie's paradise, with a wide variety of restaurants to choose from. You can find everything from traditional Italian dishes to international cuisine. If you are on a budget, you can find a good meal for around €10. If you are looking for something more upscale, you can expect to pay around €20 or more.

Some of the most popular dishes in Rome include:

- Pasta carbonara

- Pizza Margherita
- Gelato
- Tiramisu

These are just a few of the many delicious dishes that you can find in Rome. With so many options to choose from, you are sure to find something to your taste.

Rome is a city that has something to offer everyone, especially architecture lovers. With its rich history and stunning architecture, Rome is a city that you will never forget. So what are you waiting for? Start planning your trip today!
