The Mages of Starsea is an epic fantasy series by debut author Michelle Sagara. The series follows the adventures of a group of young mages as they navigate the treacherous world of Starsea.

The world of Starsea is a magical realm where the lines between good and evil are blurred. The mages of Starsea are powerful beings who can wield magic to shape the world around them. However, magic is also a dangerous force, and the mages must be careful not to let it consume them.

The series begins with the novel Cast in Shadow, which introduces readers to the main characters of the series. There is Seraphina, a young mage who is struggling to control her powers; Tristan, a skilled swordsman who is haunted by his past; and Arion, a wise and enigmatic mage who serves as the group's mentor.

As the series progresses, the characters must face a variety of challenges, including political intrigue, deadly monsters, and the machinations of a powerful dark lord. They must also learn to work together and trust each other if they want to survive.

The Mages of Starsea is a well-written and engaging series that will appeal to fans of epic fantasy. Sagara has created a rich and complex world with a cast of characters that readers will love. The series is full of action, adventure, and intrigue, and it will keep readers hooked from beginning to end.
